Print your own greeting cards

Throughout the year, keep in touch with business associates, customers, and family members. Thank them for their business. Wish them a prosperous new year.

Clubs, organizations, individuals, businesses, and many others use large printable greeting cards. Greeting cards are great for creating personalized messages for family members or business associates. Each card can be distinctly unique. Users can design and print the blank forms with any message using many different software programs (including Microsoft® Word & Microsoft® Publisher) on a copier, inkjet, or laser printer.

The large printable greeting cards are available on 8 ½" x 11" blank, white sheets, scored for easy folding. Each large greeting card measures 5 ½" x 8 ½", when folded. Matching white envelopes are also available. The small printable greeting cards are available on 5 ½" x 8 ½" blank, white sheets, scored for easy folding. Each small greeting card measures 5 ½" x 4 1/4", when folded. Matching white envelopes are also available. The advantages of printing in-house include fast turnaround, low cost, control of the project, and ability to print a few, or thousands, quickly and cost-effectively.
